

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS

Editors' Choice

Left Coast 2021 White Estate Pinot Noir (Van Duzer Corridor)

The Asian pear, toasted filbert and Golden Delicious apple-skin aromas, with a touch of chalk dust, reminded me of other grapes. The tart apricot, orange, saline and oregano-bloom flavors made me stop thinking and start enjoying this stainless-steel-fermented gem. The acidity is tangy, but thanks to 50% malo, there's also a nice round mouthfeel.

— M.A. Published 3/1/2023

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS

Editors' Choice

Left Coast 2021 White Estate Pinot Noir (Van Duzer Corridor)

The Asian pear, toasted filbert and Golden Delicious apple-skin aromas, with a touch of chalk dust, reminded me of other grapes. The tart apricot, orange, saline and oregano-bloom flavors made me stop thinking and start enjoying this stainless-steel-fermented gem. The acidity is tangy, but thanks to 50% malo, there's also a nice round mouthfeel.

— M.A. Published 3/1/2023

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS

Editors' Choice

Left Coast 2021 White Estate Pinot Noir (Van Duzer Corridor)

The Asian pear, toasted filbert and Golden Delicious apple-skin aromas, with a touch of chalk dust, reminded me of other grapes. The tart apricot, orange, saline and oregano-bloom flavors made me stop thinking and start enjoying this stainless-steel-fermented gem. The acidity is tangy, but thanks to 50% malo, there's also a nice round mouthfeel.

— M.A. Published 3/1/2023

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS

Editors' Choice

Left Coast 2021 White Estate Pinot Noir (Van Duzer Corridor)

The Asian pear, toasted filbert and Golden Delicious apple-skin aromas, with a touch of chalk dust, reminded me of other grapes. The tart apricot, orange, saline and oregano-bloom flavors made me stop thinking and start enjoying this stainless-steel-fermented gem. The acidity is tangy, but thanks to 50% malo, there's also a nice round mouthfeel.

— M.A. Published 3/1/2023